

Syllabus

for course at advanced level

Specialized course: Law & Economics part II

Specialkurs: Law and Economics part II

7.5 Higher Education

Credits

7.5 ECTS credits

Course code:	JU122B
Valid from:	Autumn 2019
Date of approval:	2010-03-05
Changed:	2010-05-03
Department	Department of Law
Subject	Law and Legal Studies

Decision

Decided by the Education Committee of the Faculty of Law on 5 March 2010.

Technical revision by the Student Services on 3 May 2019.

Prerequisites and special admittance requirements

Admittance to the course requires that the student has completed Law & Economics I at the Department of Law or the Department of Economics.

Course structure

Examination code	Name	Higher Education Credits
0100	Specialized Course: Law and Economics part II	7.5

Course content

The course aims to give students deeper understanding of the economic analysis of law. The overall theme of the course is to understand how financial incentives interact with the formation of laws and contracts in various fields (such as in consumer, copyright, employment, competition and financial laws and the functioning of the employment market).

Learning outcomes

After completion of the course the student will be able to:

- apply key areas of law and economics and describe how these methods of analysis explain how socioeconomic effectiveness can influence and be influenced by the formation of laws and contracts, and
- understand how legal economic reasoning can be applied in different fields with structural incentives as a basis for the analysis and explain how different hypotheses can influence the analysis.

Education

Instruction is given in the form of seminars. The language of instruction is English.

Forms of examination

There is a written exam at the end of the course.

Passing grades given are A, B, C, D or E. Failed grades are Fx and F.

To receive credit for this course all the course's objectives must be attained. A student who fails the exam may repeat it.

Misc

Entry into force

These provisions will apply as of 20 January 2008.

Required reading

Course literature is decided by the Education Committee of the Faculty of Law.