- read and translate shorter texts in classical Japanese

Education

Instruction is given in the form of lectures and seminars. All teaching sessions is mandatory. For more detailed information, please refer to the course description.

Forms of examination

a. The course is examined on the basis of a written exam. For more detailed information, please refer to the course description.

b. Grades will be set according to a seven-point scale related to the learning objectives of the course, A = Excellent, B = Very good, C = Good, D = Satisfactory, E = Adequate, Fx = Inadequate, F = Totally inadequate.

c. Students will be informed of the written grading criteria when the course starts. Grading criteria are binding.

d. In order to pass the course, students must receive a grade of E or higher on the written exam, and meet the attendance requirements of 80%. For more detailed information, please refer to the course description. Under special circumstances, the examiner may, after consulting with the coordinating teacher, grant the student an exemption from the attendance requirements. The student can then be assigned a compensatory assignment.

e. At least two examination opportunities should be offered for each course. At least one examination opportunity should be offered during a semester when the course is not given. Students who receive the grade E or higher may not retake the examination to attain a higher degree. Students who receive the grade Fx or F twice by the same examiner are entitled to have another examiner appointed for the next examination, unless there are special reasons to the contrary. Such requests should be made to the department board.

f. This course does not include any opportunities to complete a supplementary assignment in order to convert the grade Fx into a passing grade. For more details, please refer to the course description.

Interim

When the syllabus is discontinued, students have the right to be examined according to this syllabus once per semester during a transition period of three semesters.
