Course structure

Examination code	Name	Higher Education Credits
TVPK	Internship in Theatre Studies	7.5

Course content

The course gives students the opportunity to reflect on and analyse their experiences of the obligatory internship that is associated with this course. During the internship, students will create a portfolio that will be subsequently presented and discussed at a seminar.

Learning outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students are expected to be able to:

- describe and critically discuss the working methods at the internship site;
- develop and apply advanced concepts for their work.

Education

Instruction is given in the form of seminars and group exercises. Attendance is mandatory. The language of instruction is English. For more information, please refer to the course description.

Forms of examination

Grades will be set according to a two-point scale related to the learning objectives of the course:

U = Fail

G = Pass

At least two examination opportunities should be offered during each course and semester. In addition, at least one opportunity to retake an examination should be given during a semester or year when the course is not provided. A student who has received a failing grade (U) twice by the same examiner is entitled to have another examiner appointed for the next examination, unless there are special reasons to the contrary. Such requests should be addressed to the department board. Students will be informed of the written grading criteria when the course starts.

Interim

If the course is discontinued, or its contents substantially altered, students have the right to be examined according to this syllabus once per semester for a period of three semesters (subject to the limitations described under Forms of examination in this syllabus). Such requests should be addressed to the department board.

Required reading

The current reading list will be made available at least two months before the course starts.
