Decision

This programme syllabus was approved by the Social Sciences Faculty Board on 2017-06-07, revised 2019-10-08, and latest revised by the Head of Stockholm Business School, Stockholm University 2019-11-26; the latest revision conducted 2022-01-14.

Prerequisites and special admittance requirements

Swedish upper secondary school courses English B, Mathematics C and Social Sciences A or equivalent.

Programme structure

The programme is based on a variety of human science perspectives that enable problematisation and critical/creative analyses of various phenomena, trends and changes in modern society, its culture and business life, thereby creating an understanding of how we, in interaction with these phenomena and processes, are shaped as thinking, feeling and acting human beings, and thus our opportunities to work for a sustainable world.

The aim of the programme is to produce formative knowledge and experiences through which students will learn to think innovatively, develop their self-knowledge and personal initiative, as well as apply these abilities in qualified management positions in society, markets, businesses and other organisations, both in Sweden and internationally.

The language of instruction is English.
