Course literature Personnel Economics
The course is based on selected chapters of the book by Lazear and Gibbs (2014). The chapters will be complemented by selected journal articles which will be made available through Athena.

Additional literature used in the course:

